About

Hello, I'm Bhakti, a passionate web developer with a creative edge. I believe that the digital world offers endless opportunities for innovation and problem-solving, and I'm excited to be a part of it. I hold a Bachelor's degree in information technology from Mumbai University, where I honed my programming skills and developed a strong foundation in web development. I'm dedicated to crafting web experiences that not only look great but also function flawlessly. Accessibility and performance optimization are at the core of my development process. I'm committed to staying updated with the latest trends and best practices to deliver top-notch solutions.
